The Soul Sisters collection starts by paying homage to the jazz influenced beauty of Ella Fitzgerald, Earth Kitt and Billie Holiday and then onto the women that shaped the sixties Tina Turner, Margie Hendrix, Fontella Bass and Martha Reeves. Throughout the 1970's the baton was effortlessly passed on to Soul legends Barbara Pennington, Jean Knight, Gladys Knight and Minnie Riperton as the girls turned up the volume and dominated the charts. This sultry, moving, gloriously toe-tapping collection of songs proves that the Sisters have been doing it for themselves for a long time.
